Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Ibstock School encourages an informal resolution in the first instance.

This can be undertaken by:

- A telephone call or in person conversation with Sarah Nelson, Examinations SLT link.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to:

- The Headteacher's Personal Assistant.

Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 2 working days

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- submit a letter or email of complaint to the Headteacher's PA, outlining the complaint.

How a formal complaint is investigated

The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within:

- 2 working weeks.

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- submit an appeal in writing.

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 2 working days.

The appeal will be referred to:

- Chair of Governors or a special Committee of the Governing body for consideration.

It will be the responsibility of Chair of Governors or Committee to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
